around March and April of 2015, Officer Brown came out on a 911 call, while there he read my name and said I had a warrant for another state, when he took me to the jail they didn't finger print me and one of the jailer's said to put me in the back, because I had no charge's and that Alabama would pick me up that night, well after Maisea leave with all the stuff of why? I was still there the tenth day I went up front and signed extradition papers, and 13th day I was in first appearance, where the judge said he had an issue. He said the issue was that he wanted me to pull my extradition papers back because he couldn't send me to Alabama;
